

Encountred yet his Better, I have heard
 Two emulous Philomels, beate the care o'th night
 With their contentious throates, now one the higher,
 Anon the other, then againe the first,
 And by and by out breasted, that the sence
 Could not be judge betweene 'em: So it far'd
 Good space betweene these kinsmen; till heavens did
 Make hardly one the winner: weare the Girland
 With joy that you have won: For the subdude,
 Give them our present Iustice, since I know
 Their lives but pinch 'em; Let it here be done:
 The Seeane's not for our seeing, goe we hence,
 Right joyfull, with some sorrow. Arme your prize,
 I know you will not loose her: Hipolita
 I see one eye of yours conceives a teare
 The which it will deliver.

Floriss.

Emil. Is this wyning?
 Oh all you heavenly powers where is you mercy?
 But that your wils have saide it must be so,
 And charge me live to comfort this unfriended,
 This miserable Prince, that cuts away
 A life more worthy from him, then all women;
 I should, and would die too.

Hip. Infinite pittie
 That fowre such eies should be so fixd on one
 That two must needes be blinde fort.

Thef. So it is.Exeunt.

Scena 4. Enter Palamon and his Knightes pynions: Iaylor, Executioner &c. Gard.

Ther's many a man alive, that hath out liv'd
 The love o'th people, yea i'th selfesame state
 Stands many a Father with his childe; some comfort
 We have by so considering: we expire
 And not without mens pittie. To live still,
 Have their good wishes, we prevent
 The loathsome misery of age, beguile
 The Gout and Rheume, that in lag howres attend
 For grey approachers; we come towards the gods

3. K. Come? who begins?

Pal. Ev'n he that led you to this Ban
 Taste to you all: ah ha my Friend, my Fri
 Your gentle daughter gave me freedome
 You'll see't done now for ever: pray how
 I heard she was not well; her kind of ill gave me some sorrow.

Iaylor. Sir she's well restor'd,
 And to be marryed shortly.

Pal. By my short life
 I am most glad on't; 'Tis the latest thing
 I shall be glad of, pre'thee tell her so:
 Commend me to her, and to peece her po
 Tender her this.

1. K. Nay lets be offerers all.

2. K. Is it a maide?

Pal. Verily I thinke so,
 A right good creature, more to me deservin
 Then I can quight or speake of.

ARK. Commend us to her. They

Iaylor. The gods requight you all,
 And make her thankfull.

Pal. Adiew; and let my life be now as f
 As my leave taking.
